Do not call to ask how many offers are on the property. Assume that there are multiple offers and have your buyer make their best and final offer. Offers are considered based on the strength of all terms. In the event that your Buyer(s) may wish to offer higher than the potential appraised value, please confirm your buyers ability and willingness to make up the difference and potentially remove the appraisal contingency.

. Many of the questions that are being asked are already answered in the statements noted in the MLS, if you read.

Please put your initials; sign this document and send with your offer.

Dear Buyer(s):

We are involved in a multiple offer situation on the above property.

The seller will entertain and consider all offers in the following manner:

1. All offers must be in writing; no verbal offers will be accepted.
2. The following terms and conditions shall be applicable to you and to any offer you wish to submit:
 - a. The seller shall have sole and absolute discretion to accept or reject any offer received. The seller is not required to accept any particular offer, regardless of its terms. The seller has the absolute right and discretion to reject all offers.
 - b. Subsequent to the receipt of offers, the seller shall have the absolute right to deal directly with any broker and/or one or more offerors to further negotiate the terms and conditions of any offer. In so doing, the seller shall have no obligation to negotiate or communicate with each and every other offeror or with any of them.
 - c. In accepting an offer, the seller shall make its decision solely on such lawful factors and criteria as it, in its sole judgment, deemed appropriate under the circumstances. Price is but one factor to be considered.
 - d. Under no circumstances shall verbal communication between an offeror and the seller or any agent or broker constitute or create an obligation on the part of the seller to sell a property to anyone under any terms.
 - e. The acceptance of an offer shall be conditioned upon the subsequent execution by Buyer and Seller of a written contract of sale setting forth terms satisfactory to the seller. The seller shall have no obligation to sell the property unless and until such written contract is fully executed.
 - f. Be sure to include your HIGHEST & BEST offer.

Please sign below to acknowledge your understanding and acceptance of this process and return this form with offer to Vicky Hansen via email at offersvicky@dicksonpodley.com. Failure to transmit such acceptance may prevent the seller, at their discretion, from considering any offer you may wish to submit.
